ABOUT EATING CROW.

As is well known, the Charleston News & Courier earnestly and violently opposed the nomination of CAPT. B. R. TILLMAN as Governor of South Carolina. So violent was its opposition that many did not think it would support TILLMAN, if nominated, and that there would be a split. But when the nomination was made the News & Courier fell into line and now advocates his election as a necessity to white supremacy. Referring to this state of affairs, the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette taunts the News & Courier with "sitting beside the dark waters of sorrow munching its TILLMAN crow."

The News & Courier replies most happily. We quote its concluding words: As we may have remarked before, we should not select crow for a steady diet: but when it comes to a choice between Democratic crow-and a white one at that-on the one hand, and the regulation high old Republican buzzard on the other, we shall always go for the home bird without hesitation, and with all the appetite that we can muster. Our Cinble and smash the dishes and things for its entertainment; and that the proper and very "gamey" bird at its leisure, and leave other people to worry down their kind of political poultry as best

WHAT THE CONGER LARD BILL MEANS.

[Atlanta Constitution.]

In attempting to force the Conger Lard bill through Congress, the Republicans and the so-called Democrats who sympathize with them are running wild with the doctrine of paternalism. What does the Conger bill mean?

1. That any American industry with money enough to sustain a paid lobby can buy enough Congressmen to destroy a competing industry.

2. That a Republican Congress is willing to destroy a cheap, wholesome and popular food product in order to put money in the pockets of the lard trust.

3. That the Republican party is willing to cripple a Southern industry whenever the opportunity offers.

4. That the Republican party is ready at any time to sacrifice the interests of the negro cotton-growers of the South to those of a trust that is able to contribute neighborhood. to the corruption fund for campaign TPOSes.

THE Harnett Cot r has entered upon a new volume. It is a ery creditable paper to Dunn and Harnett county and shrewd scheme to get so many Indians deserves a very liberal patronage.

THE POLITICS OF LATITUDE AND LONGITUDE.

[From New York Herald.]

watch the Republican leaders at this stage of the game.

It is rather amusing on the whole, to

They have an admirably constructed machine, and are working it with the energy of desperation.

We do them more than justice, however, when we say that they havn't the slightest regard for the general welfare, but are running legislation in the interest of a party.

Under the present administration of affairs, the monopolist is everywhere, and the people are nowhere. The masses are cajoled and the classes are rampant. The rich capitalist can have all he wants if he bleeds freely before election, but the poor man must look out for himself.

This is not a particularly inspiring outlook, but we are optimistic enough to believe that there will be a grand shake up by and by and this crooked business be made straight by popular indigna-

The radical weakness of the Republican party is that it runs along parallels of latitude-that is, from east to west. From Atlantic to Pacific it never creeps below the latitude of the Ohio

The whole South is therefore a TERRA INCOGNITA, an unexplored political territory, as little known and as little regarded as Central Africa.

So far as that party is concerned it has no relations whatever with the southern half of this continent.

It is indifferent to the aims and purposes, the ambitions and prospects of the people who live there.

It regards them as natural enemies, and by such legislation as the Force bill treats them as such.

ducted by the strategy of armies, but | clubs all over the State would do well to | ble of the most surprising effects. by means of laws. The North is alone posed to be in the saddle.

the South, which is quietly minding its to come. own business, building mills on every stream, developing mines, raising crops beyond precedent, filling the market with valuable timber, and growing rich by a thousand new industries, is infinitely more loyal to the Republic than a party which takes to itself the credit of saving the Union and then depletes the treasury in order to pay itself for its disinterested patriotism. It is therefore evident that the Republican party must either become national rather than sectional in policy, as it was under LINCOLN, or meet its deserved doom. It must either legislate for the whole country or be pronounced unworthy to make laws for any part of it.

In other words, the party which runs east and west must give way to a party that runs north and south.

The politics of the future will not be afraid to cross the Ohio. It will extend along the lines of longitude, beginning at the lakes and ending at the Gulf. Or, as WEBSTER put it, it will know no North, no South, no East, no West, but a united country, undisturbed by sectional bitterness and unrestrained in its enthusiasm for every square mile over which the flag waves.

Our politicians can't see this because they are looking for cakes and ale; the people will see it, after a little, and then the QUAYS, REEDS and DUDLEYS will not stand upon the order of their going, but go at once.

VANCE ENDORSED.

Yesterday's CHRONICLE contained the proceedings of the Surry county convention as to nominations. One report failed to give the most significant feature of the convention which was that resolution endorsing SENATOR VANCE for reelection were unanimously adopted.

A SECRET MEETING OUT IN CHEROKEE.

A Sharp Contrast to the Open-handed Canvass of W. T. Crawford in the Same Field .- An Agent's Small Busi-

(Asheville Citizen.)

CHEROKEE, N. C., Sept. 17, - Cherokee Printers & Binders circulars went out from the United States Indian agent's office at this place cinnati contemporary will understand to the several Cherokee townships calltherefore, we hope, that it was wholly ing all the Cherokees to meet in convenin vain to expect us to kick over the ta- tion at Ne-Wa-ti meeting house, Jackson county, Sept. 16th, to hear the old men course for it to pursue under the cir of the tribe speak. This circular said cumstances is to munch its own favorite that refreshments would be served and the fatted calf killed. The names of the venerable speakers were: Jackson Ju-hilah (Fox), Ha-yah-een (Swimmer) Fox, and Tuhen-kee-sti (Pheasant) Fox. The unpropitious clouds on the morning of the 16th partly passed away. The Indians gathered in large numbers at the appointed place, and with eyes expectant, turned toward the rising of the sun, whence they should hail the coming of those aged ones whom they called Behold whom should they see but the big "Injun" H. G. Ewart, who proceeded to talk politics. As none of the Indians named were present to give an account of themselves, though the United States Indian agent and government school superintendent were there, the Pheas(an)t was served by the Fox! Upon which the Cherokee Naiad spoke in the following language:

'Back to your shades, Ye spirits of the illustrious red: Stay not to be the dupes of such neat chicane,

See to your own arts instead! 'Suffer not the bright lights Of your tribe to come to shame, We'll rally again on the noted 'ides' And bear 'TECUMSEH' on to fame!!"

W. T. Crawford spoke the day before Ewart, but his meeting was political and public and advertised as such in all the Superintendent Spray and Agent 'Jim' took undue action in this, I claim, they being employees of the United States. Agent "Jim" called this meetand interpeted for Ewart. Spray furnished music by his brass band. It was a together, under the pretence of hearing from their own men and then bring Ewart out to make a political speech. "CHA-LAH-KEE."

Hic Pabula Docet.

(Asheville Citizen.) There was once a bull whose chief deire was to get into a china shop. But his character as an attorney for the other beasts of the Republican field was such that admission was refused. He we, t away and shrewdly dressed himself up as a shepherd, said his name was Obwart, and presenting himself at the china shop was admitted. But his true character being presently discovered he was driven out with a club well applied, though not till he had done some damage.

Moral: You can't disguise a bull except by taking his hide off which can best be done in joint debate.

BUNCOMBE RIGHT SIDE UP.

(Special Cor. STATE CHRONICLE.)

I am not much for political excitement, but from the plain indications of the present administration I think all Southern white men should labor for a united front. I think it manly and patrictic in CONVINCED Republicans to ignore their former affiliations. It is plain that the Republican party, as such, has lost much of its former conservatism, and taken up in its stead sectionalism, extravagance and fanaticism. Our honored representative in the State Senate two years ago, I am credibly informed, says he can't follow policies that are not of general utility, and henceforth he will vote with the Democratic party, because it is "righter" than his own party. Nothing can be said against the private character of this gentleman, nor does he seek any promotion or place, save his own happy farm and loving family. Our Mr. Crawford, now stumping the district for Congress, is indicating the propriety of his nomination, by gentle- SILKS. manly, straighforward truth, rather than vituperation and abuse. We have no fears of his success. And if a few more honest republicans will drop in, as the papers say they are doing all over the DRESS TEXTURES. South, we may make Mr. Harrison and Mr. Reed think that "Dixie" is worth approach Republicans in a respectful regarded as loyal; the South is still sup- way, and they will find that instead of giving offence, they will find hundreds And yet to a calm observer of events of them just waiting for a good excuse
